- Start-up company (existing < 3 years) receive a 50% discount on the membership fee in the first two years of their membership. After the second year they pay the normal fee.

The organisation that requests the membership during the current year, will only pay the (to ratio) remaining contribution for that year, under the condition that the organisation will remain a member for the following complete year. If the membership is ended prematurely, the organisation authorizes MinacNed to collect the remaining contribution for the foregoing year.

If an organisation is a member of one or more FHI-branches, then the organisation can become a MinacNed-member for a reduced fee. The discount for one extra branche amounts to 25%; for two or more branches the discount amounts to 50%.

* please fill in the box which is applicable.

 prices do not include VAT. The membership fee still has to be determined by the general assembly.

 The contributor membership is intended for private persons whom are not connected to an institution or company, nor for persons of whom the organisation already have a full membership. If multiple persons from a single organisation want to become a member, the contributor membership enables this.
